

To serve you with good printing. No matter what the nature of the job may be we are ready to do it at a price that will be satisfactory.

The Mahoning Dispatch.

PEOPLE READ THIS PAPER

That's why it would be profitable for you to advertise in it. If there is anything that you want the quickest and best way to supply that want is by placing an advertisement in this paper.

BERLIN CENTER

Jan. 30—The basketball team went to Poland Friday night and played the team there, Berlin winning the game. Mrs. John Kaley fell from a ladder in the barn Saturday morning and broke her leg below the knee. She also sustained other painful injuries. Lena Dier of Youngstown spent Sunday with her parents. Stanley Rakestraw of Niles spent Sunday with his family here. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wilson of Youngstown attended the K. of P. banquet Saturday night. Mrs. Lorne Hawkins was in Youngstown Tuesday.

Raymond Hack was in Youngstown Friday. The lecture in the Methodist church Sunday night was well attended. A collection of $16 was taken up and given to the Red Cross.

C. M. Shively was in Cleveland Tuesday. Mr. Santee, who has been clerking for L. E. Hawkins, has returned home to North Benton and will work in the woods the rest of the winter.

Mrs. Solomon Hartzell, who has been having a bad cold, is now recovering.

Wilbur Galbreath spent several days last week with relatives in Leetonia.

Dr. Gudgel and family were in Youngstown Friday.

Miss Bessie Culler was in Cleveland Wednesday.

The K. of P. banquet, Saturday night was well attended. In spite of the extremely cold weather about 125 partook of an excellent roast beef supper, with all the trimmings, after which the boys entertained the crowd with two short plays, one entitled, "Trouble at Nine O'clock," by two colored men, Carl Florence and Elgie Kline, and How Uncle Dick Got a Wife, which was surely great. The men deserve much credit for their work in entertaining.

Jan. 30—Last Sunday evening Glen Ross, a layman lecturer, gave a talk for the benefit of the Red Cross. Mr. Ross entertained his audience well and the collection amounted to $16.

Dr. and Mrs. W. D. Coy of Youngstown were luncheon guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Hawkins Sunday.

The Berlin high school basketball team defeated Poland high last Friday evening.

Mrs. Sadie O'Neal, who visited friends in Pennsylvania, has returned home.

The banquet given by the Knights of Pythias last Saturday evening was enjoyed by most of the members and their families.

Harold Eekis and Miss Bernice Eekis spent the week end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Eekis.

Miss Nora Altwater was the guest of her sister in Alliance for the week end.

The school will hold its usual literary Friday afternoon. All of the parents are invited.

George Hesel has returned home from a visit with his daughter, Mrs. Green, in Greenview.

Stanley Rakestraw, who has been working for the Penna. R. Co. at Niles and Warren, was at home Saturday and Sunday.

Many of the children are absent from school due to vaccination for smallpox.

The army trucks attracted much attention when they passed through here shortly after noon Tuesday.

Jan. 30—Samuel Yates of Damascus spent last Sunday at Arthur Shuler's. Mrs. Newell and two daughters, Mrs. John Mock and daughter, Bert Shively, James Cline, Fred Peckins, the Edwards brothers and Stratton Best were among the Berlin people in Alliance last Saturday.

Mrs. Clara Hoyle is among the sick. W. S. Hoover and wife visited Jan. 30.

There will be preaching in the Methodist church next Sunday morning.

Mr. Harvey of Alliance visited at Homer Cline's over Sunday.

Mrs. Ormsby and Miss Alice Clugston entertained friends from North Berlin last Sunday.

A good many people seem to think the war will soon be over. It cannot end too soon to suit most folks.

No more popular paper than the Dispatch circulates in this neighborhood where it has many readers.

MILLVILLE

Jan. 30—Mrs. A. R. Greenamyre has returned home after spending the past week at the home of her brother, C. W. Zimmerman, and family in Salem.

Ralph Arner of Youngstown was a week end guest of his parents here.

Aaron Coy has been notified to serve on the jury the coming week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wangert and children were Damascus visitors Sunday.

A. M. Carr spent Friday in Alliance.

Mrs. Robert Saunders was a Leetonia visitor Thursday.

L. E. Leonard of East Palestine spent Friday in the village with friends.

A shadow pie social will be given by the Sunday school Feb. 7, and an attractive program will be given before the social hour.

Charles Alverson of Youngstown spent Sunday at the home of his sister.

Several from this community attended the Sunday school convention in Greenford Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Howells and son William were Wednesday visitors in Youngstown.

Miss Laura Conlin of Lisbon spent a few days the past week with friends in the village.

Abram Zimmerman, who has been critically ill the past few weeks, has made much improvement the past week and his friends are greatly encouraged.

Mrs. F. E. Betz was a Lisbon visitor Saturday.

G. S. Smith of Lisbon spent a few hours in the village the other day.

Mrs. L. B. Force of Lisbon called on Mrs. Nicholson Thursday.

Mrs. H. A. Louzemberger of Sebring called in the village Friday.

Sometimes the bridegroom looks as serious as if he were being mustered into the Battalion of Death.

NORTH LIMA

Jan. 30—The funeral of the late Mrs. Eliza Ann Bigner, who died at the home of her adopted daughter, Mrs. Francis Sipe, in Springfield township, was held Wednesday afternoon from the residence and the body brought to the North Lima cemetery for interment. Deceased was a member of the North Lima Reformed church and well known and favorably regarded in this community. Her husband died a number of years ago.

At the regular meeting of the board of education of the North Lima district last week usual monthly business was transacted. Mrs. T. J. Hadaway, having tendered her resignation as a member of the board, Mrs. J. E. Glenn was appointed to fill the vacancy. The board decided to change the high school course to meet the demands of the county and state authorities. (Mrs. M. L. Beard is president of the newly organized board, and R. S. Crouse is clerk.)

Grober's Tyrolean Alpine Singers and Yodlers will be an attraction at the school auditorium Thursday evening, Jan. 31.

A number of local K. of P. members expect to attend the county convention at the order at Youngstown Thursday evening.

Forest Mentzer was quietly united in marriage Thursday evening with Miss Hazel Kurtz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will Kurtz, of Springfield township. Many friends of the young couple end best wishes.

Floyd Double entertained a number of his classmates of the seventh and eighth grades with their teacher, Miss Walter, in his home near East Leetonia Wednesday evening.

Due to continuous snows and high winds the country roads have been in a deplorable condition, and much work is necessary to keep them open to travel. A large number of war trucks passed through the village on their way to the sea coast last week, and the roads had to be opened for them.

Sleighting is fine and the young people are taking advantage of it.

Mrs. Raymond Ingersoll of Warren spent Wednesday with her friend, Mrs. S. M. Cole.

Daniel Hahn and family, who have been in Virginia for several months with the relatives of Mr. Hahn, returned to their home here Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Mentzer of the city were callers in town Sunday.

CONFEDERATE CORNERS

Jan. 30—Miss Lizzie Bixler is spending several weeks with Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Bixler.

Mrs. S. M. Burkholder went to Salem last Monday and visited her mother, Mrs. Mellinger.

Saturday night while Chas. Davis was coming home from town his sleigh upset, leaving him in the snow while horse and sleigh went home.

Warren Cool is busy with the snow plow making roads. A very good plan that others should follow.

Pete Venzell, who has been working for the Penna. R. Co. at Niles and Warren, was at home Saturday and Sunday.

Many of the children are absent from school due to vaccination for smallpox.

The army trucks attracted much attention when they passed through here shortly after noon Tuesday.

Jan. 30—Samuel Yates of Damascus spent last Sunday at Arthur Shuler's. Mrs. Newell and two daughters, Mrs. John Mock and daughter, Bert Shively, James Cline, Fred Peckins, the Edwards brothers and Stratton Best were among the Berlin people in Alliance last Saturday.

Mrs. Clara Hoyle is among the sick. W. S. Hoover and wife visited Jan. 30.

There will be preaching in the Methodist church next Sunday morning.

Mr. Harvey of Alliance visited at Homer Cline's over Sunday.

Mrs. Ormsby and Miss Alice Clugston entertained friends from North Berlin last Sunday.

A good many people seem to think the war will soon be over. It cannot end too soon to suit most folks.

No more popular paper than the Dispatch circulates in this neighborhood where it has many readers.

EAST LEWISTOWN

Jan. 30—Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Love called on Mr. and Mrs. Henry Blosser Sunday evening.

A large balloon that left Akron one day last week carrying five men made a landing one half mile west of this village on the farm of Geo. Brook. The men were nearly frozen.

The balloon that passed over here last Thursday was lowered on Geo. Brook's farm, east of the Boyer school house. There were five solid boys in the basket. They called to Roy Brooks to tie them fast to a telephone pole. They lowered a rope and Mr. Brooks anchored them, letting them down slowly. The New Middletown truck came along and took them to Salem whence the balloon and the solid boys returned to Akron by rail. The boys stated that after they left Akron they were about 6 miles in the air and above the clouds, the weather being more favorable than lower down.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Mellinger visited at Mr. and Mrs. Burkholder's Friday.

The large balloon that passed over here last Thursday was lowered on Geo. Brook's farm, east of the Boyer school house. There were five solid boys in the basket. They called to Roy Brooks to tie them fast to a telephone pole. They lowered a rope and Mr. Brooks anchored them, letting them down slowly. The New Middletown truck came along and took them to Salem whence the balloon and the solid boys returned to Akron by rail. The boys stated that after they left Akron they were about 6 miles in the air and above the clouds, the weather being more favorable than lower down.

C. H. and Leland Blosser and Herman Doering of East Palestine spent several days last week with the former's parents on account of the five day lay off at the McGraw rubber works.

The yard of the novelty works is being filled with saw logs.

Several of our men were out shoveling snow on roads that were impassable.

Chas. Davis purchased a fine cutter of S. H. Martin.

Henry Blosser received a postal card on the 18th from his son, O. A. Blosser, who with the 20th Engineers, stating that they arrived safely in France. O. A. was formerly the Dispatch correspondent in this place.

POLAND

Jan. 30—J. F. Duff has been on the sick list for several weeks. He is now able to be out.

Charles Spitzer of New Middletown was a caller here this week.

The farmers' institute held here last week was largely attended, many farmers from a distance being present.

W. L. Manson of New Springfield was a caller here last week.

Ice is being cut at our dam that is 23 inches thick.

John Kneisel of Petersburg was a business caller here Friday.

A son arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. McCollough.

George S. Hensley of Petersburg was a business caller here last week.

Fred Pritchard of Lisbon was here Friday.

William H. Johnston has been appointed agent for explosives in Poland and vicinity.

GEEBURG

Jan. 30—A. B. Miller was in Canfield Saturday.

Joe Bixler hauled coal for Geo. Miller Saturday.

Manthous Yeager and Homer Kirk left Saturday evening for Chillicothe to visit Howard Yeager who is in the 332nd Infantry and also to attend the farmers' meeting in Columbus.

David Vaughn and wife of Youngstown spent the week end with A. B. Miller and family.

Mrs. Rachel Yeager and Mrs. Frank Crum spent several days with Mrs. John Bartholomew.

A number from here heard the lecture in Ellsworth Friday evening.

David Berkey and children visited at Joseph Paulin's Saturday and Sunday in Woodworth.

Ralph Williams, who is in training camp in Georgia, was home on a short furlough and visited here with his brother and father.

Paul Gergie and Geo. Jerry were callers at John Bartholomew's Sunday.

Urias Yeager was in Youngstown Tuesday.

Miss Esther Miller visited Bertha Musser Saturday night.

Frank Crum spent Sunday with John Bartholomew.

A large balloon passed over the burg Tuesday forenoon.

The following were entertained at John Bartholomew's Saturday night: Mr. and Mrs. Arlie Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Friend Fenton and baby, Mr. and Mrs. David Vaughn, Mrs. Rachel Yeager, Mrs. Frank Crum, Mrs. Ray Gergie, Mrs. Wm. Yeager, Urias Yeager, Bertha Musser, Minnie Miller, Esther Miller.

Two merry sleds from here went to the home of Dallas Bowman in Hickory Monday night and a most enjoyable evening was spent by all.

A delicious supper was served by Mrs. Bowman. The loads were composed of Mr. and Mrs. Friend Fenton and son Wilbur, Mr. and Mrs. John Bartholomew, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Toot and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Arlie Miller, Mr. and Mrs. David Vaughn, Mr. and Mrs. James Leonard, Mrs. Rachel Yeager, Mrs. Frank Crum, Bertha Musser, Marion Tanner, Esther Miller, John Rhodes, Urias Yeager, Myron Handwork, Guy Musser, Walter Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Yeager ate their Sunday dinner at Thomas Yeager's.

H. C. Clay butchered a beef Monday.

Attorney and Mrs. B. K. DeCamp and daughter of Youngstown spent Sunday at Wm. Gardner's.

They made the trip in a sleigh and Mr. DeCamp said it was the first sleigh ride since his courting days.

Thomas Yeager got plenty of action shoveling snow the past week while hauling milk to Youngstown.

Evelyn Shafer and Edith Rowe visited the Austintown school one day last week.

ELLSWORTH

Jan. 30—Mary Laughlin was home from Canfield over Sunday.

Interesting meetings were held here Sunday morning and afternoon, conducted by Mr. Ross.

A farmers' institute will be held here in February. Announcement of date will be made later.

Mrs. Chauncey Case spent Sunday in Alliance.

John Laughlin's condition remains unchanged.

Mabel Young was home over Sunday.

Rev. Cope is conducting meetings each evening in the M. E. Church. All are welcome and should hear him.

Mrs. Homer Crook returned home Sunday morning from Youngstown where she attended the funeral of her niece.

A number of ice houses are being filled with ice.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Shafer of Jackson and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Pressell of Youngstown called here Tuesday evening.

Our stores will be open only until noon on Mondays.

Mrs. J. O. Anderson is entertaining her mother here.

Mrs. Lewis of Ellsworth Station died Sunday night at the home of her daughter Mrs. Milton Florence. Funeral was held Wednesday with burial in the Ellsworth cemetery.

The government military trucks in charge of soldiers passed through here Tuesday afternoon and people were out in force to see them.

SHADY HOLLOW

Jan. 30—H. C. Heintzelman of Boardman spent a few days at F. C. Heintzelman's last week.

C. L. Meeker and Elmer Rothgeb were in Youngstown Wednesday.

O. H. Paulin has a new Oakland six automobile.

F. C. Heintzelman and wife and Homer Bare were in North Lima Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Dietrich spent Sunday at C. P. Moff's.

Mrs. O. H. Paulin spent a few days with relatives in New Springfield.

A not much traffic on the roads now.

Ernest Withers and family spent Sunday afternoon with George Withers of Boardman.

Alvin Bare of Youngstown spent Sunday and Monday with his parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dietrich spent last week with relatives in Youngstown and Struthers.

F. C. Heintzelman went to Cleveland Wednesday and drove home an Oakland automobile for D. S. Pfau & Son of North Lima.

Elmer Bare was in Youngstown Friday night.

Leo Bare played basketball in Boardman Friday night.

WEST AUSTINTOWN

Jan. 30—The writer is in receipt of a letter from H. H. Brunstetter of Alva, Okla., stating that H. H. Rush died at his home in Alva Jan. 18. Surviving him are his widow who formerly resided in this, Jackson and Milton townships, five sons and two daughters, all residing in the west.

G. W. Ripple, who is suffering with paralysis of the left side, is slowly improving.

Miss Nina Anderson, who was suffering with a severe cold, is able to be up again.

Mrs. P. C. Schrum and Miss Mary Schrum of near Cornersburg have returned from a trip to Camp Sherman, Chillicothe.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wilcox and children have returned from a visit in Pennsylvania.

And still it snows and blows. Many of the by roads are impassable and have been for some time on account of snow being drifted. Snow on the level is from 10 to 12 inches deep.

NORTH CANFIELD STREET

Jan. 30—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Calhoun spent Sunday afternoon at R. F. DeCamp's.

Evelyn and Wm. Shafer spent Sunday evening at T. E. Yeager's.

Quite a number from this street were in Canfield Tuesday and saw the Liberty trucks pass through.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Clay spent Thursday in Youngstown.

Calvin Musser ate his Sunday dinner with his mother, Mrs. Eva Musser.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster Cox of Youngstown called at J. C. Allspaugh's Sunday.

Mrs. Geo. Yeager is among the sick. A sled load of about thirty people from Cornersburg and Youngstown spent Saturday night at R. F. DeCamp's.

The evening was pleasantly spent with games and music. At midnight a delicious lunch was served.

Paul Matthews spent Sunday with his parents in Ellsworth.

Mrs. Rachel Yeager and Mrs. Frank Crum spent the week end with Mrs. John Bartholomew of Geauga.

Wm. Rowe spent Sunday with Wm. Shafer.

John Cruthers, wife and two sons and granddaughters spent Sunday with Mrs. Lucinda Crum.

Mrs. Bertha Lehman called on her sister, Mrs. Fred Brudersly, Saturday night with his sister, Mrs. Joe Myers, in Salem.

H. C. Calvin and D. R. Lehman recently purchased new Portland sleighs.

David Lehman of Burton City was here on business one day last week.

Elmer and Jerry Slagle were in Columbiana Tuesday.

Miss Mollie Lehman called on Miss Bertha Tescher Sunday.

John Koch and A. B. Knopp received a carload of blended flour from Londonville Friday which they distributed to customers.

Earl Brubaker recently moved from Salem to the Mrs. Sally Gungawer farm. Earl continues in the employ of C. W. Zimmerman until spring when he will take up farming.

Mrs. Bertha Lehman called on her brother, O. D. Calvin, in Youngstown, Tuesday.

Miss Bertha Tescher, who has been on the sick list, is slowly improving.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Calvin were in Leetonia Tuesday.

Columbiana parties are working double shift in opening a coal mine on the Perry Vannell farm. They are putting in a slope and expect to have coal ready for market very soon.

We hope that this mine will prove successful at the other opening a year ago proved a failure.

We wish to remind our friends in other states that there is no loading in Ohio this winter for when we are not busy hunting for coal and sugar we are shoveling snow, only to shovel again.

ISLAND

Jan. 30—A sled load of our young people went to East Leetown one evening last week where they were entertained by Wm. and Katie Brubaker.

H. N. Detweiler and family were Sunday guests of H. A. Schaeffer and family.

Benjamin Lehman will have a public sale Feb. 5.

S. R. Martin and family were entertained at a goose roast dinner Sunday at A. W. Detrow's.

Mrs. Susan Lehman spent Friday with her son, D. R. and family.

Jonas and Lizzie Knopp visited Sam Good and family Sunday.

Misses Agnes and Ida Weaver were in Salem Friday.

Mrs. Carrie Good called on her sister, Mrs. Bertha Lehman, Friday.

A sled-load of high school students of Lisbon were entertained by Mark Klengensmith Saturday evening.

Eugene Stafford of Youngstown called on D. R. Lehman Sunday.

Miss Emma Rohrer of Akron is spending some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rohrer.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brudersly spent Saturday night with his sister, Mrs. Joe Myers, in Salem.

H. C. Calvin and D. R. Lehman recently purchased new Portland sleighs.

David Lehman of Burton City was here on business one day last week.

Elmer and Jerry Slagle were in Columbiana Tuesday.

Miss Mollie Lehman called on Miss Bertha Tescher Sunday.

John Koch and A. B. Knopp received a carload of blended flour from Londonville Friday which they distributed to customers.

Earl Brubaker recently moved from Salem to the Mrs. Sally Gungawer farm. Earl continues in the employ of C. W. Zimmerman until spring when he will take up farming.

Mrs. Bertha Lehman called on her brother, O. D. Calvin, in Youngstown, Tuesday.